- Attention Emmaus Borough Student Residents - The Emmaus Borough Council is now accepting applications for a JUNIOR COUNCIL MEMBER. This is an amazing opportunity for a student to learn how local government functions and to have a voice in the process! Students must be residents of Emmaus and students in good standing at EHS. The application process is simple. Submit a one- to two-page essay entitled, "Why community-centered service learning is important to me." Essays should be brought to the main office attn: Dr. Kieres and must be received by Friday, September 21st. See the following link for more information from the PA State Association of Boroughs - <http://boroughs.org/ckfinder/userfiles/files/FinalBrochureJune2017.pdf> Students in all grades are encouraged to apply. Depending on the number of candidates, priority consideration may be offered to underclassmen to ensure duration of service in the role. Please contact Dr. Kieres or Ms. Rodriguez with any questions. Thank you!
