

---

Start your citation with an author(s) and the title of the article, if available. Note that there are no quotation marks surrounding the article title. Then, list information in the following sequence:

1. Information connected with any secondary printing (not online)
2. Original source information
3. Online (current) location information

Millenoix, P. F. "History of Aviation." In

Aircraft Enthusiasts, edited by D.C. Jennings.

Vol. 4. Baton Rouge: Better World Books,

1990. Previously published in *U.S. News and

World Report* 122, no. 1 (February 6, 1983):

9- 12. <http://link.galegroup.com>.

.