Description of Course

Course Title:

Grade 7 Social Studies, Honors - # 721

Description:

The primary focus of this course is the development of civilizations in four major geographic regions: the Americas, Africa, Asia, and Europe from 500 C.E.-1500 C.E. With this foundation, the course will then trace the evolution of the modern European nation-state and provide a framework for understanding the impact of European empires on the world community leading up to the early twentieth century.

Goals:

- Review Themes of Geography, map skills, and types of maps
- Reinforce target-reading skills through guided activities
- Discover how physical geography affected development of societies
- Discuss how societies have been shaped by their history
- Identify the belief systems and patterns of daily life
- Investigate types of government that were formed
- Analyze how each society organized its economic activities

Honors Level Enrichment:

The Honors level course will incorporate enrichment opportunities including, but not limited to the following:

- Accelerated pace of instruction
- Advanced instructional strategies
- Supplemental reading
- Independent research
- Oral presentation
- Higher-level assessments
