Description of Course

Course Title: 7th Grade English, Honors - # 7110

Description:

This course is derived from the state standards of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. In this course students will concentrate on writing effective paragraphs, reading and discussing novels and short stories, as well as developing good grammar skills. Vocabulary and literary terms are emphasized. Every attempt is made to integrate these components so that students learn to use the English language effectively. Students who enroll in Language Arts Honors will be required to read TWO of the books from the list below over the summer and be prepared to complete a writing assignment and/or other appropriate assessment when they return to school in September.

Goals:

Students will:

- Become better readers, writers, thinkers, and listeners.
- Write in different styles and develop a three to five paragraph essay with a distinct focus, organizational techniques, well-developed content, and voice.
- Identify various phrases and clauses.
- Apply essential elements of fiction.
- Read two books from the summer reading list prior to the start of the school year.
Black Like Me – John Howard Griffin
Treasure Island – Robert Louis Stevenson
Animal Farm – George Orwell
All Quiet on the Western Front – Erich Maria Remarque
White Fang – Jack London
Walk Two Moons – Sharon Creech

Requirements:

Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain

“The Diary of Anne Frank”

“A Christmas Carol”

Selected poems and short stories from Prentice Hall Literature

2 Book Reports in addition to required summer readings

2 Summer Reading books from above list

First 6 vocabulary units by mid-year; second 6 vocabulary units by end year.
